

Amanda counted on us for digestive care.

Chronic heartburn left Amanda McVey in constant pain. When dietary changes and antacids failed to fix the problem, Amanda turned to Wythe County Community Hospital. She learned her acid reflux was caused by a hiatal hernia, and underwent minimally invasive LINX surgery to correct the issue. Today, Amanda says she's doing "perfect" and enjoying life again. Like Amanda, you can count on us to diagnose digestive disorders, and help you get back to the life you love Enhanced cleaning, mask requirements and social distancing to help keep you safe.

From the routine to the unforeseen, count on us.
